Join us Fridays at 1:30 p.m. in the Ferrentino Meeting Room as we play classic, documentary and foreign films.

May 5 - Stir Crazy (111 minutes) Rated R

Two zany drifters are mistakenly sent to prison for a robbery they didn't commit. They must rely on their wits in order to survive a sadistic warden, a hulking mass-murderer, and worst of all, the inter-prison rodeo. Starring Gene Wilder and Richard Pryor.

May 12 - Midnight Run (126 minutes) Rated R

A bounty hunter is charged with delivering an embezzling, bail-jumping accountant to Los Angeles. What he doesn't know is that the Mob is also after said accountant for embezzling the money in the first place. Starring Robert De Niro and Charles Grodin.

May 19 - Bad Boys (119 minutes) Rated R

Two Miami cops watch as 100 million dollars in heroin, from the biggest drug bust of their careers, is stolen out of police headquarters. This puts them hot on the trail of a French drug lord. Starring Will Smith and Martin Lawrence.

May 26 - Rush Hour (108 minutes) Rated PG-13

A wise-cracking cop from L.A. and a high-flying cop from Hong Kong join forces to track down a kidnapper. Starring Jackie Chan and Chris Tucker.
