

WEDNESDAY MATINEES

MARCH

Every Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. we'll show the hottest new releases in the Lower Level Community Room. Delicious popcorn provided.

March 4 - Motherless Brooklyn (144 minutes) Rated R

In 1950s New York, a lonely private detective afflicted with Tourette's Syndrome ventures to solve the murder of his mentor and only friend. Based on the novel by Jonathan Lethem, this crime drama stars Edward Norton, Gugu Mbatha-Raw, and Alec Baldwin.

March 11 - Last Christmas (103 minutes) Rated PG-13

A dysfunctional young woman meets a handsome and life-changing stranger during the Christmas season while working as Santa's elf at a year-round Christmas store. This dramatic rom-com stars Emilia Clarke, Henry Golding, and Emma Thompson.

March 18 - The Good Liar (109 minutes) Rated R

Consummate con man Roy Courtney has set his sights on his latest mark: the recently widowed Betty McLeish, worth millions. But this time, what should have been a simple swindle escalates into a cat-and-mouse game with the ultimate stakes. This crime drama stars Helen Mirren and Ian McKellen.

March 25 - Knives Out (130 minutes) Rated PG-13

A detective investigates the death of a patriarch of an eccentric, combative family. This comedic mystery has an all-star cast, including Daniel Craig, Chris Evans, Ana de Armas, Christopher Plummer, and Jamie Lee Curtis.

Elmwood Park

PUBLIC LIBRARY

explore. connect. create.

Adults